Knitting with Katie

Beginning Knitting

4 sessions $50, 1 session $15

Begins Tuesday, January 26, 5:30 - 7:00 pm

Knitting is a great way to have fun and relieve stress. And, you get something yours and unique at the end of each project. If you have been thinking how much you would love to create your own treasures for yourself and others, now is the time to learn this ageless craft! Join Katie each Wednesday evening and learn the skills you need to tackle any project. Below is the schedule of skills we will cover each week. If you've got some of the basics down, just drop by on the evenings you need.

January 26 – Getting started. We will cover casting on and knit stitch, and will select our project for week 3.

February 2 – Taking it to the next level. We will learn purl stitch, yarn overs (yo), knit two together (k2tog), make 1 (m1), slip slip knit (ssk), and pass slip slip over (psso)

February 9 – Getting knitty with it. We will start our project and learn how to read a pattern. We will also discuss gauge, yarn weights, and how to modify patterns.

February 16 – Finished! We will learn how to cast off and finish our projects. We will also discuss blocking, sewing seams, and answer any final questions.

Winter Workshops:

Beat those winter blues! Learn new techniques while creating fun and functional projects. Stash them up or keep them for yourself. All prices for Katie's workshops include yarn and pattern.

Double Knit Hat

Sunday, January 24, 1 pm – 4 pm

$35

This workshop will teach the art of double knitting, giving you a completely reversible, very warm finished hat. Choose any of your favorite two Galway, Lanaloft worsted, or Lambs Pride colors. We will work with double points & circular needles on a versatile double knit pattern that can be modified for endless possibilities. For the extra adventurous, the magic loop technique will also be taught. Please bring #8 16" circls, #8 dpns, and if you are interested in learning Magic Loop. please bring a 32" or longer #8 circular.

Baby Sweater

Sunday, January 31, 1 pm – 4 pm, and

Sunday, February 28, 1pm – 4 pm

$60

In this workshop we will learn the basics of sweater making by knitting and constructing a sweater in miniature. In the first session we will begin knitting the sweater out of Crofter and discuss blocking and ways of adapting patterns to make construction easier. At the second session knitters will bring completed and blocked pieces and the workshop will be devoted to construction techniques and finishing. Please bring #6 needles.

Technique Tutorials

Do you want to expand your knitting expertise but don't have a lot of time? Sign up for a technique tutorial! Please bring scrap yarn and appropriate needles to learn the new technique.

Two Color Knitting

Monday, January 25, 5:30 pm – 7:00 pm

$20

This tutorial will be devoted to learning the basics of Fair Isle knitting, and time permitting, intarsia. Please bring 2 skeins of different colored yarn of the same weight.

Entralac

Monday, February 1, 5:30 – 7:00 pm

$20

This tutorial will introduce the basics of entralac. This challenging, two colored technique uses short rows to produce a stunning "woven" finished look. Bring all your scraps and ends that you just don't know what to do with and double pointed or circular needles.

Cables

Monday, February 8, 5:30 – 7:00 pm

$20

Become a master of cables and add depth to any project. Feel intimidated by those raised up embellishments to knitting? Don't be! Come join Katie for this tutorial and master the art of cables.

Knitting with Stephanie

Learn new techniques while creating a gorgeous project. Stash it up to give away or keep it for yourself. Check with Cowgirl Yarn for supply list.
